MARTIN AND SHEEHAN NEXT

THEY MAY HAVE TO TESTIFY THIS WEEK.

POSSIBLE DISCLOSURES ABOUT THE COMMISSIONERS FROM SUPERINTENDENT BYRNES—OTHER MATTERS TO COME BEFORE THE LEXOW COMMITTEE.

John W. Goff, of counsel for the Lexow Committee, was busy in his office, in the Shoe and Leather Bank Building, yesterday, examining records of the Police Department with the aid of Mr. Travers Jerome. He declined to say anything to newspaper men as to the line of inquiry which would be followed before the committee this week, but from the fact that fewer witnesses than usual were in the office to give their statements previous to testifying the committee, it might be inferred that he was planning to have one of the Commissioners or Superintendent Byrnes called to testify on Tuesday. The recent attitude of Superintendent Byrnes in refusing longer to obey the resolution which was passed by the Commissioners in September, 1893, regarding the use of policemen in plain clothes to obtain evidence against liquor dealers was the determining factor in the case. Mr. Goff without doubt, and Commissioner Martin and Sheehan may be taken over the case when they have taken in regard to the resolution. The Superintendent may claim either of the men to say unpleasant things about the other before the committee if he is made to testify before his resignation has a chance to cool.

It is not at all unlikely that Mr. Goff will bring out some important disclosures which will lead to the influence directly exerted by Tammany leaders over the police in the interest of the liquor dealers who have been permitted to violate the law on the streets. The action of Mr. Byrnes in spurring on the police to enforce the law has caused much talk among the liquor dealers about such influence and the value of it, and much of the talk has been repeated to the able counsel for the committee.

TALKED TO THEM LIKE A DUTCH UNCLE.

DISTRICT ATTORNEY FELLOWS CALLS ALL HIS ASSISTANTS TOGETHER TO "READ THE RIOT ACT" TO THEM.

District Attorney Fellows called his assistants to his office an hour before noon yesterday and had a long talk with them. Mr. Wellman and Mr. Osborne were said to be the only Assistant District Attorneys absent from the meeting. All the others had received positive orders on Friday to attend. Previous to the meeting, District Attorney Fellows had been heard to "read the riot act" to his assistants, but he did not explain what he meant. It was supposed that the meeting was called to consult about an alleged leak in the Grand Jury room. Notwithstanding the care which had been taken lately to exclude newspaper men from near approach to the Grand Jury, it had happened in at least one instance that the publication of an indictment had been made before the Grand Jury had been sworn. This caused much annoyance to the District Attorney.

Justice Martin said yesterday that it was safe to assume that the District Attorney would not bring anything before the Grand Jury relative to corruption in the Police Department during the sitting of the Lexow Committee. Notwithstanding this, however, the Grand Jury has the power to go into the matter if it so desires. One of the jurors is exceedingly anxious to take up the Police Department, and make the present sitting a notable one.

After the meeting was over, District Attorney Fellows said to reporters that he had no information to impart. His assistants also declined to say what had happened at the meeting, although one of the jurors is exceedingly anxious to take up the Police Department, and make the present sitting a notable one.

ATTACKED AND RICKED INSENNIBLE.

Joseph Haughey, twenty years old, who lives at No. 84 Second-ave., and is a bartender in Martin Early's barroom, Seventy-sixth-st., and Third-ave., was returning home from the theatre early Saturday morning with a friend, John Richmond, of No. 30 East Ninety-seventh-st., when they met two ex-convicts, Daniel Murphy and "Nat" Spinn. Murphy knocked Haughey down and kicked him on the head till he lost consciousness. Police Officer Lynch called an ambulance and had Haughey taken to Mount Sinai Hospital. Police Justice McMahon yesterday committed Murphy in $2,000 bail.

MRS. SALLADE LOSES HER CASE.

Justice Stiner yesterday rendered a decision against Mrs. Mary E. Sallade in her suit to dispossess Jacob Scheller, the proprietor of the Arlington Hotel, at No. 54 West Twenty-fourth-st., on the ground that the hotel was in reality a disorderly house. Justice Stiner holds that the character of the house has not been proved as disorderly, and accordingly he gives a verdict in favor of Scheller, and against Mrs. Sallade, who has become well known from her crusade in West Twenty-fourth-st.

WOMAN SUFFRAGISTS TO MEET.

A woman suffrage mass meeting will be held in the lecture room of the West End Presbyterian Church, One-hundred-and-fifth-st., and Amsterdam-ave., to-morrow evening. Susan B. Anthony will deliver an address and there will be speeches by known suffragists.

WEDDING GIFTS A SPECIALTY.

SHE WAS GOING TO THROW OUT THE BABY

A CRAZY NURSE PREVENTED JUST IN TIME FROM TOSsing AN INFANT FROM THE WINDOW.

—AN EXCITING SCENE.

Julius Herman, a German butcher, of No. 129 Perry-st., a week ago hired Kate Lewis, a nurse, who lives in West Thirty-seventh-st., to take care of his wife and her newborn baby. Mrs. Lewis went to live with the Hermans, and proved a great success as a nurse until Friday, when she was found, remarkable, unlooked-for and painful characteristics.

In the evening Mr. Herman went out, leaving his wife and the baby alone with the nurse. He did not return until late, and when he did reach home he was horrified to see the new nurse standing at the open bedroom window holding the newborn babe in her arms and evidently preparing to throw it into the street. Inside the room pandemonium reigned for the baby was crying its loudest. Mrs. Lewis was screaming at the top of her voice, unintelligible rubbish about the devil being in her and it being necessary to throw the baby to Jesus Christ until she could get it out, while from the bed the sick mother was begging pitifully that she would rescue the child back and not do harm.

Before Mrs. Herman could get any words, slammed down the window, restored the child to his wife, pulled Mrs. Lewis into an adjoining room and locked her safely in the laundry passage. The Hermans are now seeking a new nurse, whose religious impulses are warranted to be sufficiently mild as not to be controlled.

As the woman was screaming frantically in the locked room and would not be quieted, the aid of policeman Morris, of the Charles-st. squad, Mrs. Lewis was taken to Bellevue Hospital, where they placed her in the insane pavilion. The Hermans are now seeking a new nurse, whose religious impulses are warranted to be sufficiently mild as not to be controlled.

THEY WISH PAY FOR WORKING OVERTIME

CLAIMS TO BE FILED WITH THE BOARD OF CLAIMS AGGREGATING $10,000, SAID TO BE DUE VARIOUS EMPLOYEES IN STATE INSTITUTIONS.

James T. Lewis, a lawyer, of No. 29 Broadway, this city, has filed or is about to file with the State Board of Claims, claims aggregating about $10,000, said to be due various employees in State institutions who have worked overtime, but have not received pay for the extra services. These claims are made under a law passed in the winter of 1889, known as "The Two Dollar a Day Law."

By the provisions of this act all employees of the State were to receive $2 a day for eight hours work, and persons employed otherwise than by the day to receive 25 cents an hour for every hour employed. Thus in many cases persons who were employed on a salary of $50 or $60 a month and kept on duty from twelve to fifteen hours are entitled to receive 25 cents an hour, or from $9 to $15 a month, respectively, during the whole time the law was in effect, which was about eleven months.

The prisoners throughout the State, as well as insane asylum have guards and keepers employed by the State at salaries varying from $9 to $15 a month, who are kept on duty from eleven to thirteen hours a day. For example, there is a guard employed at Sing Sing Prison on a salary of $15 a month who was on duty every day for sixteen hours a day. He is now presenting his claim, amounting to nearly $500.

Women as well as men are suing to recover money. Mrs. Ann Murphy, of the Hudson Refuge, having presented a claim for $80.

The Board of Claims will meet in Rochester before January 1. The larger part of these claims will be passed upon then, if not all.
